

JOB OFFER / TROYES, FRANCE

R&D TECHNICIAN-COMPOSITE MATERIALS PROCESSING

1 OUR MISSION

We believe in a future where nature and technology could blend to address the upcoming outcomes.

Woodoo is specialized in a groundbreaking material based on the structural transformation of wood at the molecular level. Translucent, tactile and renewable, we are inventing the future of tangible interfaces for the mobility industry and consumer tech. Woodoo has won more than 30 major international and national awards, such as MIT 35 Under 35 European Innovator of the Year, Horizon H2020 from the European Commission, as well as supported by the French Ministry of Agriculture, Environment, Research & Innovation.

2 JOB DESCRIPTION

Our R&D team based in Troyes, is seeking its new phenomenal R&D technician with skills in composite materials processing. Your responsibilities will cover the following:

- Thermoforming, heat molding, vacuum forming and/or pressure forming of wood composite,
- Optimization of wood composite thermoforming,
- Processing and development of prototypes according to the specifications of the customers;

3 YOUR QUALIFICATIONS

- You have a minimal technical education of 2 years after A-level (Bac+2+Bac+3) with a specialty in composite process, thermoforming, heat molding, vacuum forming and /or pressure forming of composite. You have at least 2 years of experience in thermoforming of composite or similar processes.
- Autonomy, self-motivation, ability to take challenges, excellent communication skills in working with a group are must to join our team.

4 FEELING LIKE JOINING OUR TEAM?

Please send us your resume and cover letter to jobs@woodoo.com.

For faster internal processing, please name your documents as the following: Forename Surname_CV or CL.

Feel free to add any miscellaneous document that can support your application. We will make sure to review your application and get back to you within 48h.

SME Instrument
Phase 2

European Innovator
of the year

Fulbright for the Future Prize

World Alliance Award

Global Shapers Award

SME Innovation
Associate